

Unmissable Events in Autumn Kyoto

Autumn foliage in Kyoto is dream-like atmosphere. But autumn in Kyoto is not only a beautiful view. DMC Japan Kyoto offers you two events which make your trip much more gorgeous!

JIDAI MATSURI Festival October 22nd 2018

If it rains on that day, the festival rescheduled to the next day.*

The Jidai Matsuri Festival is one of the three most renowned festivals of Kyoto. It consists of a large procession that travels from the Imperial Palace to Heian Jingu Shrine. Jidai Matsuri is Japanese for “Festival of Ages”, and the participants of the procession are dressed in accurate costumes from almost every period of Japanese history, as well as famous historical figures. We can arrange reserved seats at Kyoto Imperial Park, Oike street and Heian Jingu-michi for group and FIT.

KOTOBUKI-KAI October 8th – 13th 2018

Kamishichiken is one of Kyoto's five licensed geisha districts. It is the oldest of the five. Kotobuki-kai is the Dance and traditional Japanese music performance by Maiko & Geiko only 6day in every autumn.

Please contact DMC Japan if you are interested in organizing a tour related to above events or beautiful autumn color of Kyoto.

DMC Japan

dmcjapan@or.knt.co.jp

JUL2018MN