

Why don't you try *WASHI Making in Kyoto?

KUROTANI WASHI PAPER

*WASHI = traditional Japanese paper

Paper dyeing process
Using clear water of Kurotani River

"KOZO" the materials for Kurotani Washi.

With a history stretching back to 800 years, Kurotani washi (traditional Japanese paper) is designated as an Intangible Cultural Asset of Kyoto Prefecture. At Kurotani Washi Kaikan, you can shop for various goods made with washi and experience papermaking hands-on, as well as tour the studio and exhibition room. You can also enjoy the reminiscence of the old papermaking village and the nature.

More information ?
Ask DMC Japan

dmcjapan@or.knt.co.jp

Copyright© All rights reserved by Kinki Nippon Tourist Blue Planet Co.,Ltd.

DMC Japan